PRESBYTERY MATTERS

Presbytery last met on December 2nd 2025 when the business included the following matters:

Anti-migrant Protests

The Church, Society and International Committee reported on anti-migrant protests following a request for comment. There are parishes within our Presbytery that contain hotels where people seeking asylum are housed and where recent protests have been raised. Extreme language was in evidence, some racist and dehumanising, with some protesters using Christian symbols as weapons. Such behaviour can follow from legitimate concerns being manipulated through misinformation and the raising of illegitimate fears.

The Committee recognised that in a time of increasing protests there will be folk in our congregations who want to respond in a way that maintains faithful witness to Jesus Christ. It was aware of the sensitivity around this issue, acknowledging that individuals within the same congregation may hold differing views on immigration and faithful witness.

The report quoted the former Principal Clerk stating; "Jesus calls us to love both our neighbours and our enemies and to welcome the stranger. Any co-opting or corrupting of the Christian faith to exclude others is unacceptable."

Presbytery Congregation Numbers

In 2024 there were 114 congregations within Presbytery. By the end of 2025, due to adjustments, this number had fallen to 90. 37.8% of congregations (including ours) now contribute more to central funds than the cost of ministry whereas, before the changes, it was only 22.4%. Note that a congregation can occupy one church building or, as in Orkney and Shetland, a number of buildings.
